

July 2007

Hello dear friends,

there are still three of us. We were hoping, to be able to introduce to you our new addition in this newsletter. But it seems like he is in no hurry, even though he could come any time and we are very anxious to welcome him.

By now, we moved and are living in Siegburg, and are glad to be closer to friends, our home-church and also the mission organization ICW. You are all welcome to visit us at our new apartment! Please be aware of our new address and phone # down on this page.

We had the opportunity to go to Norway for two weeks with some friends of us. We did some travelling and sightseeing, and attended the conference from Litteraturmisjonen, who is overseeing the printshop in Sri Lanka. Honestly, we have to admit, Norway is a beautiful country. Incredible nature and good fishing everywhere you go! If you don't believe us, you can see some pictures on our website. But especially the time at the conference was very valuable to us. We learned more about the history, the vision, and passion of the work in Sri Lanka. It was very encouraging for us to get to know people in a personal way, who have been or still are involved with the printshop New Life Literature (NLL). And we are looking forward of working together in the near future.

We would like to mention, that we are now connected to a German mission organization called ICW (International Center for Worldmissions). We are still with ACCI, but will partner with ICW. It makes logistical arrangements easier, since they are based in Germany. We believe, a good partnership can be developed between Norway, North America and Germany for advancing the Kingdom of God.

Currently, Daniel is working part-time at ICW and part-time at our home-church in Siegburg. Additionally, he is looking for a part-time job.

His work at ICW and the church are already part of the preparation for Sri Lanka. If you were planning to support us, you are welcome to start now. That would be a great blessing to us, since our income is based on supporters. That gives us freedom to be actively involved in our church, ICW, and preparing for Sri Lanka. We are planning on heading to Sri Lanka in February of 2008.

At this point, we want to thank everyone, who has been supporting us so far, even from people we haven't met yet. We feel honored and privileged to be trusted by you. It is not easy to talk about finances, but we want to make it very simple. Only if you are really behind the work we do and if you can give with a cheerful heart, you should support us. No guilt or bad conscience should motivate you to give, only if God puts it on your heart.

For everyone, who wants to know more about ourselves, the country and place we will work at in Sri Lanka, we put a folder together and are happy to send it to you. We are also looking for people, who are committed to pray for us. Just contact us, if you have any kind of questions or informations you need.

We feel confirmed by God in the direction we are going, and are encouraged and motivated to move forward, and to see, how God will guide our individual steps.

May God bless you.
